FROM THE AUXILIARY PRESIDENT:

I recently attended the Department of California convention and I was very impressed by both the Post and Auxiliary leadership. I especially enjoyed the presentation done by VFW National Commander-in-Chief, Duane Sarmiento. He expressed his gratitude and admiration to the Auxiliary and lovingly refers to all Auxiliary members as “the muscle behind the hustle”. That resonated with me and I’m very proud to say, our Auxiliary certainly lives up to that!

The entire Department installation took place as well as District installations. I would like to congratulate our Auxiliary members, Kathie Okolski and Leanna Brown on being installed as Department Sr. Vice and District President (respectively). Also, a HUGE congratulations to Post member, Paula Jansen, on her installation as Department Jr. Vice.

2024/2025 is going to be a whirlwind for us at 7907! This year my focus is bringing awareness to the Veteran programs that the VFW Auxiliary supports; building comradery with our new members; elevating our Veteran & family support and of course, continue to be the “muscle behind the hustle” that is our Post.

Our next Auxiliary meeting is Tuesday, July 9th at 6PM. I’ve got a new format and FUN planned so I hope to see you all there!

Thank you for all of your support!

Dawn Ragnar

Did you know?

The VFW Hall on Old Pomerado Road sits across and within some of the more notorious real estate in Poway.

The original stage coach route between San Diego and Escondido ran right in front of the hall.

Those old cobble houses across the street are the site of the Twenty Mile Saloon. Please don't confuse these with the Big Stone Lodge further down the road.

More than 120 years ago, there was a murder in the saloon and the gunman was never charged.

Daniel Dodson owned the saloon and stage stop. He lived there with his stepdaughter Ida and his business associate Carmelita. Ida was a pretty young thing and she started swooning on the young stage coach driver. Her step daddy, Daniel, didn't like that. The stagecoach driver, Jeb from the vile scoundrel Feeler family was no friend of Dodson.

One thing led to another and Jeb was a suspect in a bank robbery. A gun went off at the saloon but, it is not clear who shot who and Jeb was dead. With Jeb's body as evidence the Sheriff planned to hold an inquest but some how the vital evidence disappeared. No one was ever charged for the crimes.

The VFW Hall was right in the center of the action. Supposedly the loot from the robbery was hidden along Beeler Creek between the stage route and Rabbit Pond. The saloon became even more notorious and the women of Poway considered the area the "danger zone."

The Poway Historical Society is going to be bringing this legend to life on September 14th at Templar Hall in Old Poway Park as a part of our 60th anniversary celebrations. We will be performing an original play that will tell this tale for the public.

Because the VFW Hall sits in the center of this legend, we wanted to give you and your members notice that bringing this legend alive might bring some treasure hunters to your doors.

It's all true, the murder and robbery and inability to bring anyone to justice.

Poway was once the wild wild west!

To learn more about the Poway Historical Society, check out our website at <https://powayhistoricalsociety.com>. We hope you will be able to join us at our Anniversary celebration on September 14th 2024 at Old Poway Park following the Poway Parade on Poway Road.

Never Forget the Veterans on Freedom Day!

July 4, 2024, is a special day for millions of Americans. Americans have been commemorating the holiday for 248 years since July 4, 1776, the official beginning of the Nation and the day Americans declared their complete Independence from England. The delegates from first Thirteen Colonies of America meet in Philadelphia, PA, and declared themselves to be States and no longer part of the British Empire.

On my way home from a special mission in the Philippines, from 34,000 feet above I looked down from the portside window of United Airlines (MNL TO SFO) on June 7, 2024, I was reminiscing and remembering the sacrifices of our World War II veterans. More than eighty years ago, our sea service warriors and soldiers were executing the "Pacific Island-Hopping Campaign," the Pacific Strategy in 1941-1944. The Central Pacific offensive was led by Admiral Chester Nimitz and the South Pacific offensive led by General Douglas MacArthur. It was a military strategy of recapturing the Pacific islands starting from the New Guinea, Solomons Islands, Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Guam, the Philippines, Taiwan, Okinawa and other smaller islands from the Imperial forces of Japan.

The Battle of Midway in April 1943, a US carrier aircraft dealt a devastating blow to the Japanese navy, destroying four Japanese aircraft carriers. The Battle of Midway marked the first major US victory against Japan and was a turning point in the war. Britannica recorded the following, the human casualties included approximately "3,000 Japanese sailors and airmen killed. A total of 317 United States sailors, airmen, and marines were killed."

Winning the Battle of Midway shifted the balance of naval power in the Pacific. Midway allowed U.S. forces to take the offensive for the first time. The Allies soon set their sights on Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands and on New Guinea. This was the beginning of the Pacific Island-Hopping Campaign.

"The Pacific Island-Hopping Campaign was a strategic military operation undertaken by the United States during World War II to break Japan's defensive perimeter in the Pacific. The campaign involved a series of amphibious assaults on key Japanese-held islands, with the goal of advancing toward Japan's home islands and ultimately defeating the Japanese Empire," Sang Micheal commented.

The first amphibious Island-Hopping Campaign in the Battle of Guadalcanal resulted in a significant number of casualties. For instance, in Second Lieutenant Benjamin C. Currey, U.S. Marine Corps, essay called "Amphibious Doctrine's Evolution in the Pacific," wrote "nearly 1,600 men were killed during the battle, multiple ships and aircraft were lost, and the United States was left with only a single aircraft carrier in the Pacific theater."

Secondly, about 6,400 Japanese, Koreans, and Americans died in the Battle of Tarawa fought on 20-23 November 1943. It was a battle between the United States forces and Japan Imperial forces at the Tarawa Atoll in the Gilbert Islands. It was called "Operation Galvanic," the U.S. invasion of the Gilberts.

Thousands of visitors & locals enjoy the Big Bay Boom each July the 4th, the fireworks are visible throughout the San Diego Bay including from the Naval Submarine Base, Point Loma, CA last July 4, 2022.

On my way home from a special mission in the Philippines, from 34,000 feet above I looked down from the portside window of United Airlines (MNL TO SFO) on June 7, 2024, I was reminiscing & remembering the sacrifices of our World War II veterans.

SSGT Wesley Kroenung, WW-II US Marine veteran, was laid to rest on Wednesday August 14, 2019, at Miramar National Cemetery. SSGt Kroenung was killed in action on November 20, 1943, during the first wave of coastal assault on The Tarawa Atoll, Gilbert's Islands. I had an honor leading the ceremony & services on Tuesday 13 August at the San Diego International Airport and Wednesday 14 August 2019 at Miramar National Cemetery.

One of the Marines we lost on the first of the battle was Private Herman Fred Sturmer Jr. For nearly 70 years, his remains were missing. Nevertheless, "in 2002, a construction crew uncovered remains of what was believed to be an American serviceman from World War II. A Peace Corps volunteer notified a U.S. government representative, and the news was relayed to the U.S. Army Central Identification Laboratory in Hawaii," reported by Kevin Graman. A modern-day DNA testing finally positively identified PVT Sturmer's remains. His only remaining sister, Lexey Lyons (75), Spokane, WA, provided the sample. Lexey and Herman's DNA matched. She was only seven years old when her brother PVT Sturmer left for War in the Pacific.

While serving as Command Chaplain of Naval Base Kitsap, my Commanding Officer sent me to assist the Sturmer family. It was a blessing to meet Lexey and her family in July 2011 in Spokane, WA. What an HONOR for me to serve as chaplain during the dignified return of the remains and leading the funeral service of a WW-II hero, PVT Herman Sturmer, Jr on July 1, 2011, PVT Sturmer's 86th birthday.

About a week before PVT Sturmer shipped off overseas bound for battle in the Pacific islands, he promised his seven-year-old sister Lexey that someday he would return home to Spokane. PVT Sturmer was one of the 7,100 who GAVE his all for FREEDOM, FAITH, FAMILY, AND FLAG on November 20-23, 1943, in the Battle of Tarawa. The Marine was buried next to his parents, Herman and Norma Sturmer, at Spokane Memorial Gardens. He made the ultimate sacrifice! There is a somber saying, "All Gave Some, SOME GAVE ALL!" PVT Sturmer GAVE HIS ALL!

SSGT Wesley Kroening, WW-II us Marine veteran, was the other Marine KIA on the day, November 20, 1943, that PVT Sturmer was killed on the same location in Tarawa. SSGT Kroening was laid to rest on Wednesday 14 August at MIRAMAR NATIONAL CEMETERY. SSGT Kroening was killed in action on November 20, 1943, during the first wave of coastal assault on The Tarawa Atoll, Gilbert's Islands. I had an honor leading the ceremony and services on Tuesday 13 August at the San Diego International Airport and Wednesday 14 August 2019 at Miramar National Cemetery.

The Family of SSGT Wesley Kroening was very sad that their Loved One was KIA in the Battle of Tarawa but thankful to the US Government and military that Wesley came back 76 years later. It was very hot day on Tuesday 13 August at the San Diego International Airport when we received the remains of SSGT Kroening at the tarmac of the San Diego International Airport during the ceremony. SSGT Kroening GAVE HIS ALL!

Sadly, many, many more warriors lost their lives after the Battle in Tarawa. The Battle of Leyte Gulf, a major naval battle of World War II fought between the Allied forces and the Empire of Japan, resulted in heavy casualties for both sides. The United States suffered 16,043 soldiers and 7,270 sailors killed, while the Japanese lost 419,912 soldiers. During the Battle for Okinawa, Japan lost as many as 100,000 soldiers, while the US and Allies suffered 65,000 casualties, including 14,000 dead.

As we celebrate our freedom on July 4, 2024, let us remember the veterans who fought for our freedom! Many of these warriors made the ultimate sacrifice. We owe them an eternal debt we can never repay. Yes, enjoy the sun, shores, sights, the parades, fireworks, fellowship, foods, patriotic activities, and the sounds of freedom, but never forget the service members' unselfish service and sacrifice!

Have a Blessed and Safe Holiday! May peace reign in our Country and Countries around the world. God Bless You and May God Bless the United States of America! Happy 4th!
